

PT DAESE GARMIN

COMPANY PROFILE

"Your partner for quality garment production"

Company Overview

Company History

PT Daese Garmin was established on March 15, 1988, as a joint venture with Daewoo Company (Segye Corporation), Korea. This strategic collaboration marked the beginning of our journey in the global garment industry.

In 1992, the joint venture concluded, and Metro Group, our parent company, assumed full management control. Since then, PT Daese Garmin has continued grow, guided by a commitment to excellence, innovation and integrity.

With more than 35 years experience, since we have built a strong reputation as a trusted partner in garment sector. Our enduring success is driven by continuous improvement, dedication to quality, and the ability to adapt to evolving market demands.
